Bryant University Athletic Hall of Fame Nomination Form

Any former Bryant University alumnus who has attained outstanding recognition or superior accomplishments in any varsity sport is eligible for nomination to the Bryant University Athletics Hall of Fame.

The nominee shall be chosen on the basis of playing ability, integrity, sportsmanship, character and his or her contribution to the team or teams on which he or she played, and to Bryant University.

Any Bryant University alumnus who has enhanced the university's athletics programs and community life is eligible, as is any alumnus whose professional attainments have enhanced his or her own prestige and added honor to Bryant University.

The Bryant University Athletics Hall of Fame may include through the nomination process, elect and induct an individual who does not qualify as an alumnus or student-athlete, but whom the selection committee feels should be included in the hall of fame because of his or her contribution to Bryant University athletics.

Nominations may be submitted by members of the Bryant University Alumni Association, Top of the Key Club, and by representatives of the university.
